

Call to Burleigh County Court Admin Office by Alex “Distance” Wilson @ 3:23 pm on 4-19-2017:

Call Length: 2:14

Summary: Distance calls the Burleigh County Court Admin Office, & is informed that her “Notice to Appear” was sent to P.O. Box 298 in Cannonball, North Dakota. She is informed: “that is the address you gave when you were arrested”. Distance contends that she has “never had a P.O. Box in Cannonball”, & would not have authorized that as a mailing address. Distance requests to “change the address they have on file”, & is informed she needs to “call Morton County Clerk of Court” to change the address on file.

TRANSCRIPT:

Automated voice.

Burleigh County Admin: Court Administration.

Distance: Hello. I just found out that I have an allegedly have a court appearance scheduled for tomorrow, & I was told originally my court appearance was supposed to be January – was scheduled for January 20th, & when I called about that, they said that it got rescheduled, 7 that they would send me out a notice.

Burleigh County Admin: What's the case number?

Distance: The case number is 30-2016-CR-1337.

Burleigh County Admin: Okay.

Distance: Okay, so I don't appear to have been given any notice that this court appearance was coming up, & did you send something out informing that my court date was today?

Burleigh County Admin: Um, yes. It was mailed to P.O. Box 298 Cannonball, North Dakota.

Distance: P.O. Box 298 Cannonball, North Dakota. Okay.

Burleigh County Admin: That's the address on file.

Distance: I will. P.O. Box 298??

Burleigh County Admin: Its whatever address you gave when you were arrested.

Distance: Interesting... cuz I don't have a P.O. Box in Cannonball.

Burleigh County Admin: Yea – its your responsibility to keep the address updated with the court, so whatever address you gave when you were arrested is what's in the file.

Distance: Okay I have a new address to give you please.

Burleigh County Admin: Okay. That's the Clerk's Office. You need to call the Morton County Clerk.

Distance: Okay. Thank you.

Burleigh County Admin: Yep. No problem.
